

Transfer Credit: Non-Collegiate Institutions

Colorado State will award transfer credit for academic work done under the sponsorship of non-collegiate institutions, if

- 1) the courses proposed for transfer have been approved by the American Council on Education,
- 2) are listed in The National Guide to Educational Credit for Training Programs, and
- 3) are approved by the academic department and college in which the subject matter is taught at Colorado State.

If the program you are interested in is not listed under the CSU Approved programs below you will need to follow the steps listed under Consider my Non-Collegiate Program. Any equivalencies listed below have been determined by the appropriate college/department and are not eligible for re-evaluation.

CSU Approved Non-Collegiate Programs:

1. Talk with your Academic Advisor to determine if the program and courses you are considering are relevant to your major/minor requirements
2. Fill out the Approved Non-Collegiate Transfer Credit Form
3. Take complete form (including course descriptions if applicable) to the Degree and Transfer Evaluation unit in the Registrar's Office
4. If the first 2 program criteria (listed at the top of this page) are met then the course description will be forwarded to the academic department or college for review.
5. Email confirming program eligibility and course equivalencies (if applicable) will be sent to your @rams account. Allow minimum of 10-15 business days for a response on your evaluation.

Once the Program is Complete:

Once you have completed your Non-Collegiate Program an official transcript from ACE (the American Council of Education) is required. ACE transcripts are typically only issued for courses that have a passing score/grade.

You can order your transcript via their website at: www.acenet.edu

1. Click on the Programs & Services button (4th button on the top)
2. Choose Transcript Services – last link in the list
3. Under College Credit Recommendation Service – choose Transcript: Request a Transcript

If you haven't used this service before you will need to Create an Account.

Please have the transcript sent to
