

Variable Credit Courses – How to Adjust CSU Registration

When you sign up for an Internship, Independent Study, Group Study, Workshop, Field Study etc., you might want to take the course for a different number of credits from the default credits. After you sign up for the course, go to the Schedule and Options tab. Click on the credit amount (1 in this example), manually type in the amount you want to register for and hit Submit.

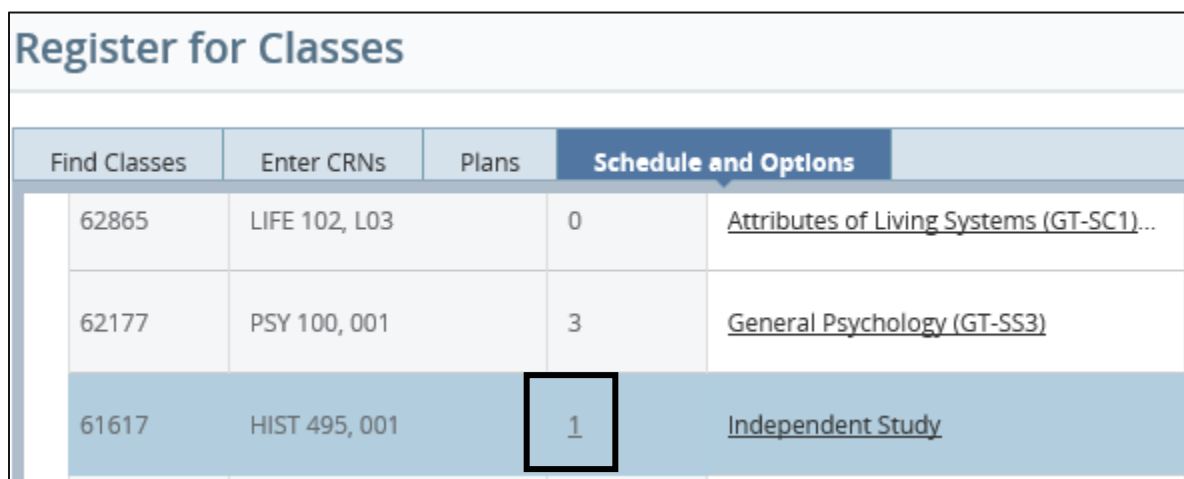

Adjusting Variable Credit Courses:

1. Add the section to your schedule.
2. Click on the Schedule and Options tab.

The screenshot shows a search interface with four tabs: 'Find Classes', 'Enter CRNs', 'Plans', and 'Schedule and Options'. The 'Schedule and Options' tab is highlighted with a black box. Below the tabs is a section titled 'Enter Your Search Criteria' with an information icon. The search term is set to 'Fall Semester 2017'. There are three input fields: 'Subject', 'Course Number', and 'Keyword'. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Search', 'Clear', and 'Advanced Search'.

3. Click on the credit amount, which will show the default number of credits underlined such as 1.

The screenshot shows the 'Register for Classes' page with the 'Schedule and Options' tab selected. A table lists three course sections. The credit amount '1' for the 'Independent Study' section is highlighted with a black box.
